CONTEST

ABOUT US.

In 2014 the Australasian Barbecue Alliance (ABA) was formed to sanction barbecue contests across Australia and the Pacific, supporting associated grass roots events and promoting “low and slow” style barbecue. Over the past several years the ABA has cemented itself as a professional and world class sanctioning body.

- 325+ Teams • Sanctioning the largest barbecue contests in Australia + NZ
- Sanctioned over 100 contests • National Barbecue Championships in Australia and New Zealand
- 5,804 members • 60,000 Facebook group members • Not-for-profit Australian association
- Partnering with barbecue brands to bring members - videos, tutorials and special events

WE ARE THE AUSTRALASIAN
BARBECUE ALLIANCE,
FOUNDED IN 2014
TO ESTABLISH A
CONSISTENT AND LOCAL VERSION OF AMERICAN
STYLE BARBECUE
CONTESTS.

GENERAL ABA TERMS.

To ensure all ABA Sanctioned contests run to a minimum standard of professionalism and consistency, the ABA requires all promoters to agree to deliver a contest that meets the standards using any of its available contest options.

It is the promoters' responsibility to ensure the safety, wellbeing, infrastructure, OH&S and all insurances for all barbecue teams, ABA support crew and visitors to the event.

The ABA will provide the appropriate guides, systems, processes and relevant contest rules and will allow the promoter to proactively market their event to a national audience through our substantial social media and web based platforms and network.

- ✓ Garner the minimum number of judges for the contest through pro-active advertising or marketing.
- ✓ Market and promote the event wherever possible including that the barbecue contest is ABA Sanctioned.
- ✓ Agree to pay the fees and costs as outlined in this agreement on time and to the minimum amounts required including travel & accommodation costs for the allocated ABA Representatives.
- ✓ Confirm minimum number of teams 3 months out to retain a sanction.
- ✓ Confirm the minimum number of judges 4 weeks out to retain a sanction.

CHAMPIONSHIP ROUND

ABA TO PROVIDE.

- ✓ Make available fully trained and competent ABA Head Judge for your barbecue contest and subsequent experienced ABA Assistants to the minimum number as described in the ABA Representatives Formula.
- ✓ Provide a platform for advertising and marketing of the barbecue contest element of your event including calling for teams and judges to participate.
- ✓ Supply all IP to enable a professional standard and consistent barbecue contest including:
 - Contest Format & Rules
 - Judge Training prior to contest judging
 - Scoring and Data Entry systems and software
 - Formatted results for each category and overall results prior to the presentation ceremony.
- ✓ Be available to provide experience based advice on how to run a successful barbecue contest – via phone or email, as required.

PLEASE NOTE.

A pool of ABA Head Judges and trained Assistants live in most States across Australia. Whilst the ABA will endeavour to allocate our representatives as close as geographically possible to your contest location to save you costs, you may be required to cover travel & accommodation costs for ABA Representatives from outside of your State or Territory. Please check with the ABA General Manager for more information on this before signing the Sanction Agreement.

ABA SUPPORTED INTRODUCTION.

ABA 'Supported Contest' is a new self-sanctioning product offering for Competition Barbecue in Australia (NZ from 2020). Promoters can now enjoy the credibility of a fully proven barbecue contest adjudication process without needing to fulfil the minimum requirements to host a National Championship Series Round.

This option is best suited to smaller events up to 20 teams* (with no minimums on team numbers or hand in categories) and for promotional style contests of all types.

The only minimum requirement is that the cooking devices be wood or charcoal fuelled as with any ABA contest and abiding by the General ABA Contest Rules.

*Exemptions may apply for contests with less than 20 teams.

ABA TO.

Supply all IP to enable a professional standard and consistent barbecue contest including:

- DIY Contest Guide.
- Appropriate scoring and data entry systems.
- Provision of print-ready documents - scoring sheets, placemats and judges course.

Note: If you would prefer a ABA team member to be on hand to supervise the process please contact us for options.
